OVERTURE.

Music by Reginald de Koven.

Moderato.

The first system of musical notation is a piano introduction in G major, 2/4 time. It begins with a treble clef and a bass clef. The treble staff contains a series of eighth-note chords and single notes, while the bass staff provides a rhythmic accompaniment of eighth notes. The tempo is marked 'Moderato'.

The second system continues the piano introduction. It features a 'rall.' (ritardando) marking in the bass staff. The treble staff has a melodic line with some grace notes, and the bass staff continues with a steady eighth-note accompaniment. Dynamic markings include 'mf' (mezzo-forte).

The third system shows the piano introduction continuing. The treble staff has a melodic line with some grace notes, and the bass staff continues with a steady eighth-note accompaniment. A 'p' (piano) dynamic marking is present in the bass staff.

The fourth system continues the piano introduction. The treble staff has a melodic line with some grace notes, and the bass staff continues with a steady eighth-note accompaniment. Dynamic markings include 'cresc.' (crescendo) and 'p' (piano).

The fifth system continues the piano introduction. The treble staff has a melodic line with some grace notes, and the bass staff continues with a steady eighth-note accompaniment. A 'cresc.' (crescendo) marking is present in the bass staff.

The sixth system continues the piano introduction. The treble staff has a melodic line with some grace notes, and the bass staff continues with a steady eighth-note accompaniment. Dynamic markings include 'sf' (sforzando) and 'p' (piano).

This system continues the musical score. The right hand has a melodic line with slurs. The left hand plays a steady accompaniment. The dynamic markings p (piano), ff (fortissimo), and p (piano) are present.

Tempo di Valse. (Lento.)

The first system of musical notation consists of a grand staff with a treble clef on the upper staff and a bass clef on the lower staff. The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 3/4. The music begins with a piano (mf) dynamic and a legato marking. The right hand plays a series of chords and eighth notes, while the left hand provides a simple harmonic accompaniment.

The second system continues the piece, maintaining the same key signature and time signature. The right hand features more complex chordal textures and melodic lines, while the left hand continues with a steady accompaniment.

The third system shows further development of the musical themes. The right hand has a more active melodic line with some grace notes, and the left hand has a few longer note values.

The fourth system continues the piece with similar textures. The right hand has a more active melodic line with some grace notes, and the left hand has a few longer note values.

The fifth system includes a rall. (rallentando) marking in the right hand and a ff (fortissimo) dynamic in the left hand. The tempo slows down, and the dynamics increase.

The sixth system begins with an a tempo marking, indicating a return to the original tempo. The piece concludes with a final chord in the right hand and a sustained bass note in the left hand.

First system of a musical score in G major, 2/4 time. The right hand features a melodic line with slurs and accents, while the left hand provides harmonic support with chords and moving bass lines. A rall. (ritardando) marking is present in the latter half of the system.

Allegro agitato.

Second system of the musical score. It begins with a f (forte) dynamic marking. The right hand has a rhythmic pattern of eighth notes, and the left hand has a similar pattern. A cresc. molto (crescendo molto) marking is placed over the right hand. A triplet of eighth notes is indicated in the left hand.

Third system of the musical score, continuing the rhythmic and melodic development. The right hand features a series of eighth-note patterns, and the left hand has a corresponding accompaniment.

Fourth system of the musical score. The right hand has a melodic line with slurs and accents. The left hand has a rhythmic accompaniment. A molto f (molto forte) dynamic marking is present.

Fifth system of the musical score. The right hand has a melodic line with slurs and accents. The left hand has a rhythmic accompaniment. The key signature changes to G minor.

Sixth system of the musical score. The right hand has a melodic line with slurs and accents. The left hand has a rhythmic accompaniment. A ff marc. (fortissimo marcato) dynamic marking is present.

Allegro vivace.

The first system of the score consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a 2/4 time signature. It features a melodic line with eighth-note patterns and slurs. The lower staff is in bass clef and provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and some eighth-note movement.

The second system continues the musical material from the first system. The upper staff maintains its melodic focus with eighth-note runs and slurs. The lower staff continues with a steady accompaniment of chords and eighth notes.

The third system shows a change in the lower staff's texture. The upper staff continues with eighth-note patterns. The lower staff features a more active bass line with eighth notes and slurs. The instruction marc. il Basso is written below the bass staff.

The fourth system includes a dynamic marking of ff (fortissimo) in the upper staff. The upper staff has a melodic line with some chromaticism. The lower staff continues with a rhythmic accompaniment.

The fifth system features a more active upper staff with eighth-note patterns and slurs. The lower staff continues with a consistent accompaniment of chords and eighth notes.

The sixth system concludes the page with a melodic line in the upper staff and a final accompaniment in the lower staff. The upper staff has eighth-note patterns with slurs.

First system of musical notation, featuring a treble and bass staff. The treble staff contains a series of notes, some with accents and slurs. The bass staff contains a series of chords and notes, some with slurs.

Second system of musical notation, featuring a treble and bass staff. The treble staff contains a series of notes, some with accents and slurs. The bass staff contains a series of chords and notes, some with slurs.

Third system of musical notation, featuring a treble and bass staff. The treble staff contains a series of notes, some with accents and slurs. The bass staff contains a series of chords and notes, some with slurs. The word cresc. is written below the bass staff.

Fourth system of musical notation, featuring a treble and bass staff. The treble staff contains a series of notes, some with accents and slurs. The bass staff contains a series of chords and notes, some with slurs. The word ff is written below the bass staff.

Fifth system of musical notation, featuring a treble and bass staff. The treble staff contains a series of notes, some with accents and slurs. The bass staff contains a series of chords and notes, some with slurs.

Sixth system of musical notation, featuring a treble and bass staff. The treble staff contains a series of notes, some with accents and slurs. The bass staff contains a series of chords and notes, some with slurs. The words con tutta forza and rall. are written above and below the treble staff respectively. The system ends with a double bar line and a repeat sign.

Tempo a la marcia.

First system of musical notation, featuring a treble and bass clef with a 2/4 time signature. The music includes various rhythmic patterns and dynamic markings.

Second system of musical notation, continuing the piece with similar rhythmic and melodic motifs.

Third system of musical notation, showing more complex rhythmic structures and melodic lines.

Fourth system of musical notation, maintaining the march tempo and style.

Fifth system of musical notation, featuring dense chordal textures and rhythmic patterns.

Sixth system of musical notation, including a "rall." marking in the bass line.

Seventh system of musical notation, starting with "Largo." and ending with "attacca".

No. 11. Tinkers' Song

Sir Guy, Sheriff, Tinkers

Allegro

The piano introduction consists of two staves in G major and common time. The right hand features a rhythmic melody with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a steady accompaniment of quarter notes. The piece begins with a forte (f) dynamic.

f Sir Guy

'Tis merry, merry, merry, merry journey-men we are, All in the tink'-ring

f Sheriff & Tinkers

'Tis merry, merry, merry, merry journey-men we are, All in the tink'-ring

f sempre stacc.

The vocal parts for Sir Guy and the Sheriff & Tinkers are written on a single staff in G major. The piano accompaniment is on a grand staff. The piano part features a staccato accompaniment for the vocal lines, marked f and sempre stacc.

line, Sirs, We tramp, tramp, tramp the roadways near and far, When the weather it be—

line, Sirs, We tramp, tramp, tramp the roadways near and far, When the weather it be—

The vocal parts continue with the lyrics 'line, Sirs, We tramp, tramp, tramp the roadways near and far, When the weather it be—'. The piano accompaniment continues with a steady accompaniment of quarter notes, ending with a final chord.

End of the Opera.

As sung by Miss Florence Wickham

Oh promise me

Words by Clement Scott

R.de Koven. Op.50

Moderato

The piano introduction is in G major, 2/4 time, and marked Moderato. It consists of three measures. The first two measures feature a piano (p) accompaniment with a melody in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand. The third measure is marked pesante and features a more prominent piano accompaniment.

The first line of the song features a vocal melody in G major, 2/4 time, marked mf. The lyrics are "Oh prom-ise me, that some day you and". The piano accompaniment is in G major, 2/4 time, marked p. The piano part begins with a f (forte) dynamic in the first measure, then continues with a piano accompaniment.

The second line of the song features a vocal melody in G major, 2/4 time, marked p. The lyrics are "I Will take our love to-gether to some sky Where". The piano accompaniment is in G major, 2/4 time, marked p. The piano part continues with a piano accompaniment.

Note. This celebrated song is now generally sung between Nos. 10 and 11 of this score.
